

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, Jr.
Inspector General, CIA

Mr. Kirkpatrick was born in 1916 in Rochester, New York. He was graduated from Princeton University in the School of Public and International Affairs in 1938. Prior to World War II he worked for the U. S. News Publishing Company in Washington, D. C. During World War II he served in OSS and on the staff of Gen. Omar Bradley's 12th U.S. Army Group as intelligence briefing officer. For his service in World War II he received the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, European Theater Ribbon with five battle stars, and the French and Belgian Croix de Guerre. He was discharged with the rank of major. At the end of World War II he returned briefly to the U. S. News as an editor of "World Report" and in 1947 went into the newly-established CIA where he has been ever since. He has served in a variety of positions in that agency.
